

SUBMISSION GUIDE

Holistic Education in the Asia-Pacific Region

Spotlight Summary

Education is more than just schooling - it is a lifelong process through which a learner constantly drives their own development. Education - like learners themselves - needs to be holistic, dynamic, responsive, open to new ideas & perspectives. The Royal Academy in Pangbisa, Bhutan, & HundrED are partnering to find & showcase innovations in the Asia-Pacific region that promote holistic education.

Introduction

These instructions will assume you are starting this process from the Spotlight page on the HundrED website here. Please read the full summary of the Spotlight there before filling in the forms. At the end of each step or “tab” in the submission form, click the button to save your work and continue to the next tab. For reference on what a completed innovation page looks like, click here.

3. Enter Description

Intro Information

- ☐ Why did you create this innovation? What was the need you saw or the problem you are trying to solve?
- ☐ How does your innovation work in practice? How does your solution address the need or problem? Do you have any evidence that it works? What type of technology and/or methods does your solution use?

The screenshot shows a web form titled 'Enter Description' with a progress bar at the top. The progress bar has 10 steps: MAIN, INTRO (highlighted), QUOTE, KEY FIGURES, CONTACTS, MAP, OWNERS, APPLY, and PUBLISH. Below the progress bar, there is a toggle switch labeled 'Use new introduction with questions' which is turned on. The form contains two text input areas. The first area is labeled 'Why did you create this innovation?' and has a character count of '0 / 400'. The second area is labeled 'How does your innovation work in practice?' and has a character count of '0 / 1000'.

Example:

ABOUT THE INNOVATION

Why did you create this innovation?

There are great things happening in education all around the world, but it is difficult to find the ones that are working really well.

How does your innovation work in practice?

HundrED's research process is a global selection process with over 150 Academy members in more than 50 countries that select innovations for impact and scalability. After they are selected, we help promote their work to a global audience in over 100 countries. We also help connect them with other education changemakers in the HundrED community that help them spread. We have a series of projects we do with partners (including Spotlights) that help us discover innovations and helps them spread. Finally, our community is at the center of everything we do, making everything happen. They consist of over 350 innovators, 19 country leads, and over 700 ambassadors in over 100 countries.

- ❑ How has it been spreading? What was the need you saw or the problem you are trying to solve?
- ❑ If I want to try it, what should I do? What are some main achievements of your solution over the last 1-2 years? What are your goals for the next 2-3 years?

How has it been spreading?

Example:

How has it been spreading?

HundrED continues to grow every year, with about 6 projects each year and more partners around the world. For example, we are now working with the LEGO Foundation, the World Bank, and the OECD, all which started in the last 2 years.

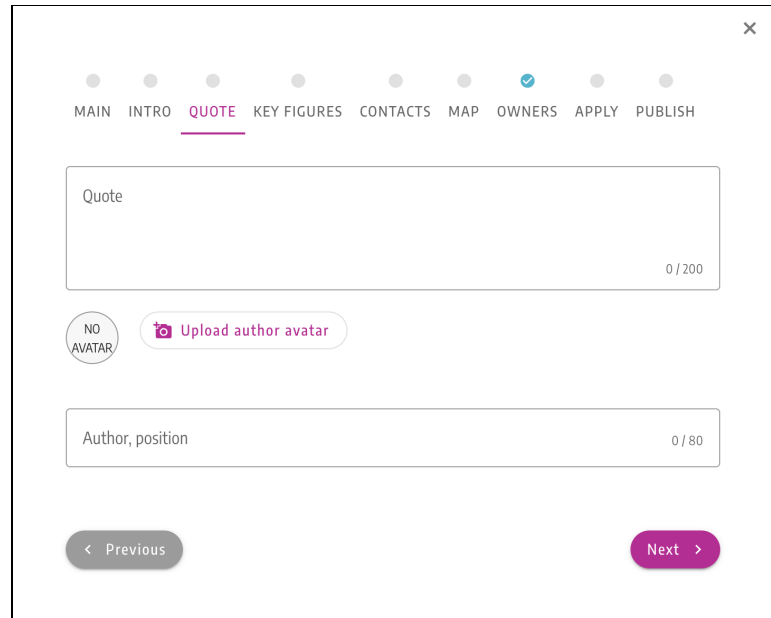

If I want to try it, what should I do?

Anyone can go to hundred.org and create an innovation page for free. Once an innovation has been selected, we work closely with them to help promote and spread their work. If you would like to connect to a selected innovator, fill out the form on hundred.org/connect and we can help connect you!

4. Enter Quote & Figures

Quote

- ❑ Quote Share a quote on the information, preferably from a user or a supporter
- ❑ Avatar Photograph of the quote author if you have it
- ❑ Author, position Name of the quote author and position in relation to the innovation (e.g. student, teacher, founder)

The screenshot shows a web form titled 'Enter Quote & Figures'. At the top, there is a progress bar with nine steps: MAIN, INTRO, QUOTE (highlighted in pink), KEY FIGURES, CONTACTS, MAP, OWNERS, APPLY, and PUBLISH. The 'QUOTE' step is the current active step. Below the progress bar, there are two main input fields. The first is a large text area labeled 'Quote' with a character count of '0 / 200'. Below this is a section for the author's avatar, showing a circular placeholder with 'NO AVATAR' and a button labeled 'Upload author avatar' with a camera icon. The second main input field is labeled 'Author, position' with a character count of '0 / 80'. At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: '< Previous' and 'Next >'. The 'Next >' button is highlighted in pink.

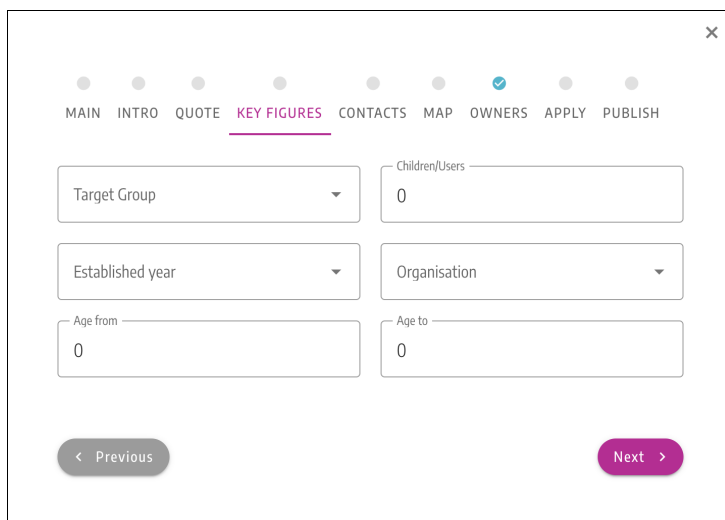

Example:

"The community HundrED provides for Education Innovation is beyond helpful for people in this field. It is so important to keep being inspired by other educators and be a forever learner."
